Conditions of Membership

1. The Institute shall be comprised of Regular Members, Associate Members and Affiliate Members.
2. Regular Member: A person who is conducting independent research on the medicinal use of Chinese herbs in Canada, and has published papers in scientific journals shall be eligible for membership. These individuals normally hold academic positions at Canadian universities or research and teaching institutions. Other individuals may hold senior positions in hospitals, industry or government.
3. Associate Member: A person who is a research assistant, post-doctoral fellow or graduate student actively engaged in the research on the medicinal use of Chinese herbs in Canada, shall be eligible for Associate Membership.
4. Affiliate Member: Other individuals who are conducting research outside Canada, or individuals in Canada who are not directly engaged in research on the medicinal use of Chinese herbs, but show interests in Chinese herbal research are also eligible for Affiliate Membership.
5. Eligibility to Vote and Hold Office in the Institute: Only regular members shall have the right to vote at any duly constituted business meeting of the Institute and the right to hold office in the Institute. Affiliate members may serve on the CICMR Advisory Board.
6. Eligibility to Submit or Sponsor Communications: At any scientific meeting arranged by the Canadian Institute of Chinese Herbal Research, regular members are eligible to submit or sponsor communications. Associate and affiliate members are eligible to submit but not sponsor communications.
